WOMEN TRAMPLED

In Scrimmage Between the Police and Suffragists
in London

SALLIE EMERSON, AMERICAN, ARRESTED

Mrs. Pankhurst Again Is
Jailed in Holloway
Prison

London, Dec. 15.—Sallie Emerson, an American suffragette, was the central figure in a furious scrimmage between the police and suffragettes in the Bow district yesterday. Mrs. Emerson and three men were arrested.

The suffragettes gathered before the houses of the councillors and 100 police charged the procession. They seized Miss Emerson, and men and women rushed to her rescue.

A wild scene followed, during which women and children were trampled in the semi-darkness. Nobody was seriously injured. The police tore up the suffragette banners.

SUFFRAGETTES ARE FOOLED.

Mrs. Pankhurst Was Suddenly Arrested
Near Dover, Eng.

London, Dec. 15.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the suffragette leader, while returning from Paris, where she had been visiting her daughter, Miss Christabel Pankhurst, was rearrested Saturday evening by Scotland yard detectives soon after the train left Dover. The action of the police was so unexpected by the militants that they made no preparations to safeguard their leader by a detachment from the recently organized suffragette army. It was only on Sunday night last that "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond, speaking at a suffragette meeting, exclaimed: "Here and now we swear that never again will the government get Mrs. Pankhurst." Prior to her departure from Paris, Mrs. Pankhurst said that she did not expect to be arrested before Sunday, as the license under which she had been released did not expire until then, and she announced her intention of addressing a big meeting on that day in London. The charge on which she was taken into custody was "having left the country without giving 24 hours' notice of change of address as required by her license."

At Victoria station a large force of police was on hand to prevent any attempt at rescue. On the arrival of the train, and before any of the militants present realized what had happened, she was hurried into a motor car and driven to Holloway jail. "Soon after she was incarcerated groups of suffragettes drove up in taxicabs and started a concert outside the jail," Mrs. Dacre-Fox declared that the premature arrest of Mrs. Pankhurst was due to fear of what her body guard would do if the police had attempted to arrest her at Sunday's meeting. She added: "The government evidently is in absolute terror of the Woman's Social and Political union."

CARNEGIE CONFERS WITH McREYNOLDS

Talks About Trust Legis- tion With the Attorney General, Who, Laird
Says, Is Scotch, Too.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Andrew Carnegie had a 15-minute conference with Attorney General McReynolds Saturday, when the Laird of Skibo talked over proposed legislation affecting the trusts.

He refused to state what suggestions, if any, he made to the attorney general regarding the subject.

"The attorney general is a perfectly good Scotchman, just as I am," said Mr. Carnegie, "and I wanted to pay him a social visit."

RECIPROCITY WAITS ON WILSON.

He Will Decide When Revenue Prospects
Warrant Action.

Washington, Dec. 15.—President Wilson will decide when sufficient knowledge has been obtained as to the revenue producing powers of the new tariff law to warrant the beginning of negotiations with other governments looking to the signing of reciprocity treaties as authorized in the present law.

This statement was made Saturday by Secretary Bryan, who said that the treasury department had asked that negotiations regarding reciprocity treaties be postponed until it becomes evident what the effect of the new law is to be.

POOR BLOOD

Cause of Disease — Druggist
Tells of Best Remedy for It

Pure healthy blood is a most essential factor to good health.

Poor, thin, devitalized blood may be caused by a weakness of the digestive organs, an accumulation of waste matter in the system, an inactive liver or lack of exercise.

Whatever the cause, the best remedy we know is our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. It will purify and enrich the blood, tone up the digestive organs, give you a hearty appetite and create strength.

A case has just come to our attention from Guilford, Miss. Mrs. Armelise Sauter says: "For months I was in a run-down condition, and my blood was very poor. I had taken several medicines prescribed by physicians but they seemed to do me no good. Vinol was recommended and from the first bottle I noticed an improvement. I continued its use and now feel as strong and well as ever."

If you have the slightest indication of poor blood, take Vinol. If it fails to help you, we will give back your money. Red Cross Pharmacy, Floyd G. Russell, Barre, Vt.

TILL POLICE CAME

Said He Killed Her Because
She Declined to Live

WEDS TO BE FREE, THEN KISSES BRIDE

Teacher Who Said He'd Leave His Wife
Accompanies Her Home
Instead.

New York, Dec. 15.—Miss Eleanor H. Barr, the 19-year-old girl whose breach of promise suit against James L. Richmond, an instructor in the Hoboken high school, resulted in his being placed in jail in Hudson county, N. J., went Saturday with her father, Frank H. Barr.

They met Allen Moore, counsel for Richmond, and Candler Cornish, one of the teacher's friends, and a license for the marriage of Miss Barr and the instructor was obtained. On the advice of his lawyer, Richmond had agreed to marry Miss Barr to get out of prison. But he said he would not live with her and would sue for a divorce or an annulment.

In the office of Sheriff N. P. Wedin, the Barr party met Rev. Henry T. Beatty, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Hoboken, who had consented to perform the ceremony. Richmond came from the jail into the office. On seeing Miss Barr he went forward and kissed her. At the end of the marriage ceremony he kissed her again.

Then and there he changed his mind about separating from his bride and asked that she and her father wait until he packed his things.

"Now that I am free I am going with you," he said. "We'll try it, anyhow, to see if it doesn't come out all right. I believe it will."

The bride and her father waited and in a few minutes Richmond joined them. As he left the jail he spoke of his suspension from the high school and said to Sheriff Wedin:

"I'm going to begin all over again and make good."

Richmond, his bride and her father took the first train for Summit.

ROCKEFELLERS WANT CONTROL.

New Haven Being Bought Up by Standard Oil, Says N. Y. Tribune.

New York, Dec. 15.—The passing of the New Haven dividend presaged the passing of J. P. Morgan & Co. from the control of the road and marked the first concerted effort on the part of the Rockefeller or Standard Oil interests to acquire a voting majority of the stock, according to views expressed Friday by bankers in the financial district, who have kept close scrutiny of Stock Exchange transactions since the omission of the dividend, says the New York Tribune. Brokers who are known to act for Standard Oil interests have been heavy buyers of New Haven on the decline, and in the expectation that the stock may go below 65 they have received orders to make still greater purchases. During Thursday and Friday 84,808 shares were sold, of which the greater part may have been taken by the Rockefellers or by people closely associated with them.

On the New Haven directorate are now William Rockefeller and Charles M. Pratt, a Standard Oil official. On the company's books Mr. Pratt is credited with being the largest individual stockholder, with one lot of 6,690 shares and another of 15,270 shares. J. P. Morgan holds 2,188 shares, and as trustee is the holder of 1,835 shares. About 15,000 shares are held by people connected with the Morgan firm. George F. Baker, a close associate of the late J. P. Morgan, is on the company's books for 300 shares, and Lewis Cass Ledyard, who recently resigned as a director, is holder of 20,542 shares.

It is known that the Morgan interests do not hold a sufficient amount of New Haven stock to give them actual control, but that the prestige of the firm has enabled it to obtain enough proxies from the great army of New England investors to put through any slate or financing program which, in the opinion of Morgan & Co. was deemed best. The elimination of Morgan & Co. from New Haven control and the entrance of the Rockefellers into the management would doubtless mean a change in the bankers to Kuhn, Loeb & Co. who do the underscriving for the Union Pacific, the Western Maryland and the St. Paul—all of which are known as Rockefeller properties.

Massachusetts is the home of most New Haven stockholders, 48 per cent. of the total living in that state and owning 571,000 shares, or 36 per cent. of the capital stock outstanding. In New York there are 3,510 stockholders, who own 495,000 shares, or 31 per cent. of the total. Connecticut's stockholders in the New Haven comprise 23 per cent. of the total, and they own 306,766 shares of stock. A large part of the Connecticut ownership is centered in New Haven, where the general offices of the road are located. The loss in the annual income of that city by the passing of the dividend is estimated at $1,000,000.

She was stabbed in a dance hall some years ago and Perugia rescued her.
